PROCLAMATION

To Whom All Those Present Shall Come, Greetings:

- Whereas, The Audubon Chapter of the Kentucky Association of Professional Surveyors, serving Madisonville and Hopkins County, is dedicated to the promotion and advancement of the land surveying profession; and
- Whereas, The historically significant land surveying profession, through special education, experience, and knowledge in mathematics, the related physical and applied sciences, and the law for adequate evidence, has contributed to the orderly development and growth of our progressive Community; and
- Whereas, By practicing high ethical and technical standards and seeking to improve and update their profession, Professional Land Surveyors have demonstrated exemplary appreciation and responsibility for citizen's trust through the proper determination and description of land and water boundaries for the management of our natural resources and also for the protection of public and private property rights:
- Now Therefore, I, Donald E. Carroll, Hopkins County Judge/Executive, hereby proclaim March 18-24, 2007 as "PROFESSIONAL LAND SURVEYOR'S WEEK" in Hopkins County, and urge all citizens to recognize the importance of the role of the Professional Land Surveyor to our Community and Great Commonwealth.

This 6TH day of March, 2007

DONALD E. CARROLL
Hopkins County Judge Executive
